

Please do not water down Indiana's law restricting telephone solicitation. In fact, I do not consider Indiana law strict enough as it allows charitable organizations and newspapers (and a few others with strong lobbies) to call. I am thrilled to have received many less calls since joining the no-call list. Carol Miller